GAME ON! A BROADWAY DAY IN NYC.

CHESS

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18
$185

The Imperial Theatre
249 West 45th Street, NYC

Climb aboard our comfy motorcoach and get ready to make your next move... straight to Broadway! On March 18, we're heading into New York City to see the thrilling musical Chess, starring the fabulous Lea Michele (yes—that Lea Michele from Glee). This high-stakes show mixes drama, romance, and powerhouse vocals into one unforgettable afternoon in the theater. Skip the traffic, parking, and stress—we'll handle the ride while you sit back, relax, and get ready to be wowed. It's a Broadway day trip that's anything but a gamble!

Chess is the iconic musical where power and passion collide, and the stakes couldn't be higher. It's America versus Russia at the World Chess Championship, where the espionage and romance are as complicated and exhilarating as the game itself. For the two players and the woman torn between them, everything—personal, professional, and political—is at risk... and nobody's rules are the same.

Learn buttercream frosting, fondant, piping techniques, sprinkles, and candy decorations with step-by-step guidance from our instructor. No baking required — just bring your imagination!

CHOCOLATE CHIP COOKIE CUPS $55 In this hands-on, from-scratch baking class, kids will learn how to make chocolate chip cookie cups completely from the ground up! Participants will mix cookie dough from scratch, bake it in a muffin tin, and go home with six chocolate chip cookie cups each. Kids will also have the option to add vanilla or chocolate frosting to their cookie cups if they choose.

This drop-off class focuses on basic baking skills, following a recipe, proper measuring, and understanding the baking process — all in a fun and supportive environment.
