16. Find your favorite photo.
17. Find your favorite t-shirt.
18. Find your favorite food to snack on.
19. Find something that is rectangle.
20. Find someone you love and tell them!

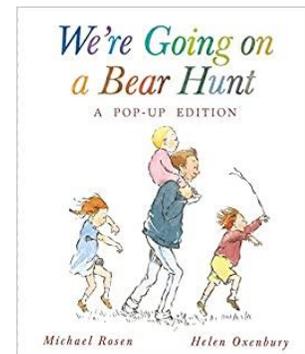

Enjoy two scavenger hunts for outdoor fun! For walks, here is a Teddy Bear Scavenger Hunt. You will need to tell your neighborhood friends to participate too.

A children's book called, "We're Going On a Bear Hunt," is inspiring a chain reaction across area communities practicing social distancing.

Lining windows of houses on streets, look for stuffed animals sitting or taped in full view for kids to spot and count. It gives families a fun reason to get outside and participate in a safe activity.

"Whenever we shared the idea with our daughter she was super excited, ran and got the biggest teddy bear she could find to put it in the window, so I think that aspect of the community involvement makes it nice," said Mom, Stephanie Simmons.

If you want to join in the fun, just put a stuffed animal in your window! Tell your neighbors and friends to do the same. And then take a walk, at a social distance of course, and count how many stuffed animals you can find each time you are out.

NATURE SCAVENGER HUNT

Can you find ...

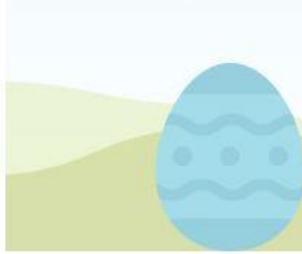

- an acorn
- flying insect
- tree stump
- spiderweb
- squirrel
- moss on a tree
- 4 different types of birds
- 3 types of leaves
- a rock big enough to stand on
- pinecones under a coniferous tree
- red flower
- tree with bark that is NOT brown
- animal tracks in the mud/dirt
- a path into the woods
- an animal making noise
- something you didn't expect to see

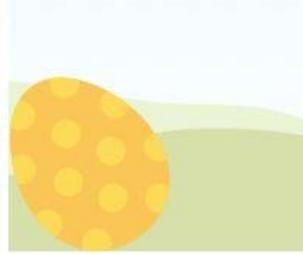

I'm in a drawer where you can reach. Hiding in what you wear to the beach.

I have four legs, but have no feet. Come and sit here while you eat.

I have two hands, no arms, and a face. I can tell you how fast you ran a race.

The more you dry, the wetter I get. At the gym I hold all your sweat.

I am paper, but not the kind you write on. I hang out by the toilet and you miss me when I'm all gone.

I keep your food cold - even in the summer. Without me, eating ice cream would be a bummer.

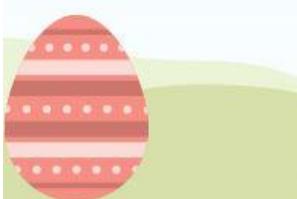

When you get dirty go for a dip. Just bring some bubbles and be careful not to slip.

I have a metal knob and even a lock. When your friends come to visit, they give me a knock.

I wait on your bed while you're away. Then we hang out when it's time to hit the hay.

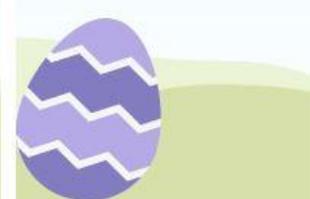

I have lots of channels, starting at one. But, don't turn me on until homework is done.

It's not a selfie, but it does show faces. Check in the bathroom or some other places.

Take off your coat and hang it here. You'll see me hiding when you get near.

Create your own LEGO SCAVENGER HUNT!

Use these printable clue cards to set up a LEGO scavenger hunt. There are 16 clues that are designed to be used in any home. Some of them may not apply or work in your situation, but there are enough clues that you should be able to choose 8-10 of them to set up a good scavenger hunt!

How to Do the Scavenger Hunt:

Gather a collection of LEGO minifigures to use in the hunt. The kids will be searching for the figures. Each clue card will direct kids to a common household location – like the refrigerator, inside a cup, in the mailbox, in a shoe, on a bookshelf, etc. Some of the clues are more challenging than others. Choose the ones you like based on the age of your kids and the length you'd like the scavenger hunt to be.

Then, hide your LEGO minifigures in locations that match the clues you chose. Make the hiding spots as easy or difficult as you'd like! For example, a minifigure can be in plain sight on a bookshelf, or it can be partially or totally hidden by books.

Everyone comes here, young and old. You'll find me where it's very cold.

I'm inside something. You just have to think! You need this when you get a drink.

I'm near something that gives you light. It helps you see when it is night.

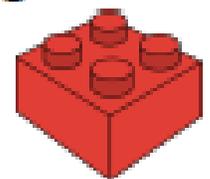

Find me near something with a spine, but it's not a person. It has leaves, but it's not a tree.

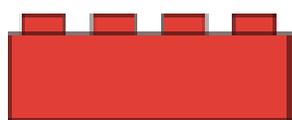

I'm in a machine that gets things very clean! But if I spin around again, I'm going to scream!

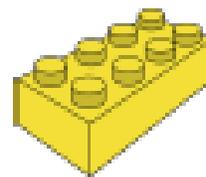

I'm in a spot I like to be, because there are snacks right around me!

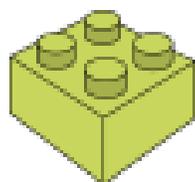

I'm inside something that walks around, from yard to street to school to town.

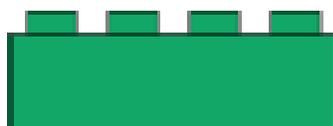

I'm in a place with lots of letters, but it's not a book, it's even BETTER!

I'm with something that the dog needs for a walk. We take it when we go around the block.

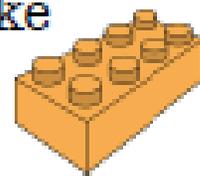

If you're getting tired of looking, don't despair! Look for a place to rest your head, and you just might find me there.

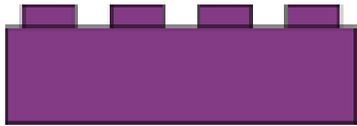

If you want to find me, then take a look near the things we use to cook!

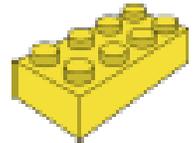

I'm tricky to find but I'll give you a hint... The thing I'm hiding near tastes like mint!

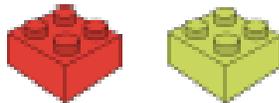

I'm hiding by something with hands and a face. But if you're thinking of a person, that is not the case!

It seems like a forest, to me - not to you. The "trees" in this forest are as tall as your shoe!

I'm hiding near that comes in twos... and matching them up really gives you the blues!

I'm hiding by something with an interesting skill. As it dries, it gets wetter still!

BUDDY BISON'S BACKYARD BINGO

Instructions:

To achieve BINGO, you must finish five tasks in a row (down, across, or diagonal).
Finish as many of the tasks on this page as you can BEFORE filling in your BINGO card.
The Buddy Bison in the middle is a free space for everyone!

After you've done as many activities as possible, see if you have BINGO.
No cheating by planning your BINGO row ahead of time!
Hint: tips for #s 16, 17, 21, 23, and 24 are found on parktrust.org

1 Create an obstacle course outside and race a household member.

2 Watch the clouds for 10 minutes and find one that looks like an animal.

3 Discover a new-to-you national park by taking a virtual tour.

4 Count how many different types of plants are in your yard/balcony.

5 Ride a bike outside for at least 30 minutes (practice social distancing).

6 Use an acorn hat or blade of grass as a whistle.

7 Spot a wild North American mammal on live cam (hint: try explore.org).

8 Take a photo of a colorful sunset; then draw a matching picture.

9 Paint a rock for your yard, front patio, or balcony.

10 Have a household yoga session outdoors.

11 Spot a bird near your home, identify it, and then try to imitate its call.

12 Make a rain gauge and place it outside to measure rainfall.

13 Sprout a bean in your yard or windowsill.

14 Draw a picture of your favorite nature spot in your neighborhood.

15 Have a picnic in your yard or on your porch/balcony.

16 Create a nature collage from materials found outdoors.

17 Complete an outdoor scavenger hunt (practice social distancing).

18 Make and hang a bird feeder using peanut butter and seeds.

19 Identify two constellations in the night sky.

20 Go on a 30-minute walk (practice social distancing).

21 Create a national park diorama with Buddy Bison.

22 Read an article online about a national historical park.

23 Do a leaf or bark rubbing craft activity.

24 Go to an outdoor space and color Buddy Bison or a park scene.

Put an X through all of the squares that match the activities you've completed.
Parents/Guardians: here are some fun prize suggestions to award for BINGOs completed.

- Special sweet treat - kid's choice
- Kid's pick for household movie night
- Kid's pick for household game night
- Indoor or backyard tent campout
- Breakfast for dinner
- Role reversal - kids are in charge
- Bedtime moved to one hour later

Maritime Signal Flags are a fun and colorful way to create be creative. You can use signal flags to create scavenger hunt codes. Spell out a secret word or phrase, using and duplicating the flags below with the corresponding letter or number. You can either copy these flags below on a copier (one for each letter or #) or make small flags coloring index cards. BE SURE TO KEEP THE LETTER OR NUMBER ON THEM. Collect the flags that symbolize each letter or number from your phrase/ word, mix them up and hide them in the house or your backyard. Ask people to find the flags. Then they have to unscramble the flags to make the word or phrase. You can give hints to help them solve the answer. First to unscramble is the winner!
